

AN IMPORTANT MEASURE.

Senator LaGrave has introduced a bill to provide for the supervision and use of the waters of the State. It divides the State into four water divisions. The first is to comprise all lands within the State drained by the Truckee and its tributaries. The second to comprise all lands drained by the Carson and its tributaries, including the small streams draining into the Carson sink, the Walker river and its tributaries, and all lands drained by streams in Esmeralda county. The third to comprise all lands drained by the Humboldt and its tributaries, Quinn river and its tributaries, the tributaries of Snake river, and all lands drained by other streams which are wholly or partly within the counties of Elko, Eureka, Lander, Humboldt and Churchill, excepting such as are included in divisions one and two. The fourth to comprise all lands drained by streams which are wholly or partly within the counties of Lincoln, Nye and White Pine, excepting those included in divisions two and three.

It provides for a State Engineer to be appointed by the Governor, at a salary of $3,000 a year, but no person shall be appointed who has not such theoretical knowledge and practical experience and skill as shall fit him for the position.

There shall be one Superintendent for each water division, who shall be appointed by the Governor. The Superintendent shall, in the distribution of water, be governed by the Act, but shall have authority to make such other regulations to secure the equal and fair distribution of water, in accordance with the rights of priority of appropriation, as may, in his judgment be needed. Any person, ditch owner or stockholder, in a ditch company who may deem himself injured, shall have the right of appeal to the State Engineer.

The bill creates a Board of Control composed of the State Engineer, who shall be President of the Board, and the superintendents of the four water divisions, one of whom shall be Secretary. It is made the duty of the Board at its first meeting, to make proper arrangements for the determination for the priorities of right to the use of public waters of the State, which determination shall begin on the streams most used for irrigation, and be continued until all claims now on record shall have been determined under the method prescribed by the Act. Any person or persons feeling aggrieved by the determination of the Board of Control may appeal to the District Court.

Within thirty days after the passage of the Act it shall be the duty of the County Recorder in each of the counties of the State to prepare a full and complete transcript of all the claims to appropriations of water now on record in their respective offices, and transmit the same to the State Engineer, for which service the Recorder shall be paid by the county twenty cents per folio. The State Engineer shall classify and arrange the claims by placing those of a stream and its tributaries together. Every person or association intending to appropriate any of the public waters, or the enlargement or extension of any distributing works, shall make application to the President of the Board of Control for a permit to make such appropriation.

The Board of Control shall divide the State into water sections to be so constituted as to secure the best protection to the claimants for water, and for each water section there shall be appointed a commissioner who shall be a resident of the section, and whose duty it shall be to divide the water in the natural streams of his section, among the several ditches taken therefrom according to the prior rights of each, when called upon by two or more owners or managers of ditches to do so.

All cases relating to or affecting priorities of right to the use of water for beneficial purposes, in any of the water sections of the State, now pending in any of the District Courts of the State, excepting such cases as may have been by order of such Courts, referred to the Board of Control, may remain in said Courts, and such Courts shall proceed with the adjudication thereof in accordance with the laws in force at the time of the inception of such cases; provided, that the Court may, in its discretion, on the application of the parties interested, transfer any such case for determination to the Board of Control.

The bill has been carefully prepared and is said to be modeled after the Wyoming Water law, which has stood the tests of the Courts. The necessity of a comprehensive water law in Nevada is generally conceded and it devolves upon the Legislature, which alone is authorized to act in the matter, to enact a law that will be as nearly just and equitable to all concerned, as the wisdom of that body can devise.

It has been held that the Act of March 19, 1891, increasing the number of University Regents by adding to those elected, two members, who were not elected, is not constitutional, and that suit would be brought to test the matter. To obviate this Assemblyman McNaughton of Esmeralda has introduced a bill to repeal the Act.

The Republican Congressional caucus has decided to include Arizona with the other Territories to be admitted as States. If the program now arranged is carried out, Utah, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Arizona will be admitted to the sisterhood of States before Congress adjourns. Alaska will then be the only Territory.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

Matters of Interest From Home and Abroad.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—On motion of Sherman the Senate went into executive session.

The executive session was for the purpose of discussing the French and Swedish extradition treaties. Incidentally the Hawaiian matter came up and is being debated. There is almost a unanimous feeling in favor of American interference, but there is a difference of opinion as to whether annexation or a protectorate is the best.

In open session the Chandler Hawaiian resolution (offered some days ago) was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

The District Appropriation bill was taken up, considered and passed.

A concurrent resolution from the Legislature of Oregon requesting the Senators from that State to use all honorable means to secure the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands to the United States was presented and referred.

HOUSE.

The Anti-Option bill with the Senate amendments was laid before the House.

Hatch moved that the House non-concur in the amendments, and agree to the request for a conference.

By unanimous vote the point of order that the amendments must be considered in the Committee of the Whole.

After considerable discussion the Speaker reserved his decision until tomorrow.

The Rules Committee reported, giving notice that they would call up the Andrews-Gale silver repeal on February 9th.

Cummings, of New York, introduced a bill to provide for commercial and political union between the United States and Canada.

The consideration of the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill was then resumed.

The House agreed to the committee's amendment to the Sundry Civil bill, limiting fees of United States Commissioners, etc., in Federal election cases to prosecution where the warrants are issued on sworn complaints.

The committee arose and reported the Sundry Civil bill to the House.

The bill was then passed and the House adjourned.

LAMAR'S SUCCESSOR.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—The President today appointed Circuit Judge Howell Edmund Jackson to succeed Justice Lamar on the Supreme bench.

Judge Jackson is a Democratic ex-Senator and at present Judge of the United States Court for the district embracing Tennessee. Inquiry about the Capitol shows that the appointment is considered as a political view as a splendid one. The appointment was a great surprise to the Tennessee delegation in the House. Two Republican members felt sore over the selection of a Democrat and State rights man, but when asked as to Jackson's personal fitness conceded his character and abilities all that could be desired. The selection politically is no more pleasing to some of the Democratic Representatives, who recall the fact that Judge Jackson was the leader of "the up school Democrats of Tennessee."

The men said, however, that the new Judge was strong, clean and able.

Representative Hanks of Tennessee when asked about the appointment said: "I think that President Harrison has followed his inclination and betrayed the Republican party, and committed a crime against the Nation, by appointing a man who by birth and schooling is a States rights Democrat, believing in the strict construction of the Constitution and the supremacy of State over Nation. I have nothing to say against Judge Jackson as a man. He is just, able and humane."

Representative Enloe said: "It is an excellent appointment. Judge Jackson is a good Judge. I have never heard his Democracy questioned."

The nomination came as a great surprise on the Senate side and was received with the Senate in executive session. While no comment was made on the floor, the Republicans gathered about in little groups and discussed it. With the exception of a few who think the President should have appointed a Republican, the nomination is well received. It was said that there would be little if any opposition to his confirmation.

Mr. Little, Democrat of New York, and a member of the House Investigating Committee, introduced in the House today a bill to revise the pension list. Its purpose is to discover all the underserving pensioners and have their names erased from the rolls.

DOUBLE MURDER AND LYING.

RICHMOND, Feb. 2.—The following are the particulars of a double murder and quadruple lynching, which was mentioned briefly in these dispatches last night.

A. H. Batheletts and Ben Sheridg, country merchants, came to Richmond to buy goods. While en route home they camped with their wagons for the night. Yesterday morning their bodies were found covered with blood, having evidently been murdered for the purpose of robbery.

Suspicion fell on four negroes, and a searching party at once started out. The first of the negroes, Jerry Brown, was arrested, and after satisfactory evidence of his guilt was obtained he was strung up.

Later in the day Spencer Branch, John Johnson and Sam Ellerson were captured and the officers started for the court-house, but the neighbors of the murdered men, learning of the fact, organized and overtook them, took the prisoners from the officers and swung them to a tree. The mob is said to be pursuing two others.

Safe Under American Protection.

LONDON, Feb. 2.—In the House of Commons today Ellis Ashmead Bertlett, a Conservative, questioned the Government as to the advice it had received from Hawaii, and further desired enlightenment as to what the British government intended to do in the matter.

Sir Edward Gray, Parliamentary Secretary for the Foreign Office, replied in effect that the information received by the government generally agreed with the cable news published in the newspapers. He added that the government, as at present advised, did not intend to send any warships to Honolulu. The government considered the lives and property of British subjects in Hawaii safe under American protection. [This brought out cries of "Hear," "Hear,"]

Continuing, Sir Edward said it was possible that a British warship on her way from Acapulco, Mexico, would touch at Honolulu, as she was going to Esquimaux. In conclusion, Sir Edward declared that there was no foundation whatever in the report that the British government had made a protest to the government at Washington regarding the Hawaiian Islands.

HAWAII MATTERS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—Hawaiian affairs came in for discussion at the executive session of the Senate today, Senator Morgan making a speech. He was the only speaker on the subject, but his remarks were strongly in favor of American control of the islands, and prompt action on the part of the Government.

Dr. Mott Smith, the Hawaiian representative in Washington, this afternoon was shown a copy of the dispatch from Chicago containing the statement that John M. Cleghorn, claiming to be the uncle of Princess Kaiulani, has fled to Honolulu.

Princess Kaiulani, the heir apparent to the Hawaiian throne, was en route to Washington, forty-eight hours in advance of the commission of the provisional government of Hawaii for the purpose of asking President Harrison to establish a protectorate over Hawaii with Princess Kaiulani as Queen. Dr. Smith said that Cleghorn may be what he asserts himself to be, uncle of the Princess, but I never heard of him. I have known S. Cleghorn, the Princess' father, for many years, and I rather think if there had been such a brother as John M. I should have been made aware of it.

Importation of Foreign Goods.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—President Harrison sent to the House to day a message dealing with the importation of foreign goods into the United States across the Canadian border under consular seal. The President discussed at length the treaty obligations which affect the subject growing out of the provisions of article 29 of the treaty of Washington, and arrives at the conclusion that the article has been abrogated and even if in force there is no law extent to execute it.

The law authorizing the sealing of cars in Canada containing foreign merchandise imported from a contiguous country does not apply to merchandise imported by our own people from countries not contiguous (China and Japan), and carried through Canada for delivery to such owners.

The President believes that a policy should be decided adapted to the new conditions growing out of the construction of the Canadian Pacific railroad and that business should be placed upon a basis more just to our people and to our transportation companies.

Didn't Worry Them.

CHICAGO, Feb. 2.—The report that J. H. Cleghorn, the alleged representative, and his niece, Princess Kaiulani, the heiress to the Hawaiian throne, passed through Chicago last night en route to Washington to present the cause of the fallen monarchy didn't worry the Commissioners, who declared it to be a fake as Cleghorn was in Hawaii when they left.

Beatty Found Guilty.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 2.—The jury in the case of Robert J. Beatty, charged with being an accomplice in the Homestead poisoning, brought in a verdict of guilty this morning on all six indictments, after being out only seven minutes.

Beatty was locked up again in default of $10,000.

Murderers Captured.

SANTA BARBARA, Feb. 2.—Sheriff Broughton arrived this evening from Santa Ynez Valley with two of the men who shot Fred Hore, the station agent at Los Angeles, Tuesday night. The men were captured this morning on a Santa Rosa ranch. They are safely in jail. Hore had died from his wound.

Cattle Will Suffer.

LARAMIE, Feb. 2.—Reports from ranches are to the effect that the blizzard of the past two days has been very disastrous to sheep and cattle and it is feared the worst is yet to come. In some sections snow has fallen to a depth of eighteen inches and it continues to lie on the ground the loss to stock will foot up large.

Mailroad Accident.

DENVER, Feb. 2.—A wreck occurred last night on the Denver & Rio Grande railroad near Teller in Southern Colorado, caused by a snowslide striking the train. Three cars were thrown from the track and eight persons all slightly injured.

Very Obliging.

TORONTO, Feb. 2.—The Populists this morning obligingly took a recess to give the Republicans a chance to do some business. The Republican House passed a bill appropriating $60,000 for Kansas' World's Fair exhibit.

O'Donnell Gives Up.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 2.—Dr. C. O. O'Donnell, the defeated candidate for Mayor at the last election, has given up the recount he demanded and which has been in progress for several weeks.

A New Trial.

DENVER, Feb. 2.—The Supreme Court today issued an order in Dr. Graves' case calling for a new trial.

ASSEMBLY.

WEDNESDAY EVENING SESSION.

The special order, Senate joint resolution No. 1, relative to the construction of the Nicaragua canal, was taken up at 7 o'clock P. M.

Mr. Massey sent up a minority report from the Committee on Federal Relations signed by himself and Mr. Griffin, which was read from the Clerk's desk, and which at once started the ball rolling.

Mr. Massey and Mr. Norcross advocated the adoption of his minority report with great fervency. Messrs. Harris and McNaughton opposed its adoption. Mr. Massey's amendment was rejected by a vote of 7 to 21.

Mr. Norcross moved indefinite postponement, which was voted down by 23 to 5.

Mr. Pike then offered an amendment which renewed the discussion with greater vehemence than ever.

Mr. Smith moved to lay the resolution on the table; this motion was lost by vote of 12 to 14. From this time the debate was loud and earnest until interrupted by the crash of a falling chimney, which the high wind blowing at the time overthrew.

After nearly two hours had been consumed in the discussion of the merits of the resolution and amendments, the final roll call was had, which resulted in the adoption of the resolution as amended by a vote of 25 in the affirmative to 14 in the negative. Messrs. Griffin, Norcross, Pike, Russell and Smith voting in the negative.

That portion of the resolution as amended by Mr. Pike and adopted reads as follows:

Resolved, etc., "that our Senators and Member of Congress be and are hereby instructed to earnestly support the measure, [insofar as such support does not interfere or in any wise hinder or delay their labors for the free and unlimited coinage of silver,]"

That portion of the resolution in brackets embraces Pike's amendment and was the bone of contention.

Adjourned.

YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

"A GOOD INDIAN"

An Indian Prisoner in the County Jail Hangs Himself.

Indian Law was arrested Saturday night for fighting and disorderly conduct. He had a trial before Justice Linn Monday and was sentenced to ten days' imprisonment in the county jail.

At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon the prisoners confined in the county jail were summoned to dinner and all promptly responded to the call excepting Lew, who said he did not feel like eating. After the prisoners had finished their dinner and on returning to the jail, the Indian was found hanging from the ceiling. He was quickly cut down, but life was extinct.

In the cell where the Indian was found there are two bunks about two feet apart, and it is supposed that immediately after the others had departed for dinner he tore strips from his bed ticking and tying them together made rather a strong cord. He threw an end over the grating in the ceiling in the cell and fastened it. Standing on one of the bunks he fastened the other end about his throat and stepped into the space between the two beds and strangled to death. He had probably been hanging fifteen or twenty minutes before being discovered.

The Coroner was immediately summoned and the body removed to his office, where an inquest will probably be held to-day.

The Indian was about twenty-five years of age and was commonly known hereabouts as "Hunkler." He was a member of the Washoe tribe.

NEVADA'S ELECTORAL VOTE.

The Silver Ballots Noticed at Washington.

The Washington News notes the arrival of Messenger Bonfield with the electoral vote of Nevada as follows: "Mr. M. S. Bonfield of Winnemucca, Nev., messenger from the electoral college of that state, has filed the returns with Vice President Morton, showing the three votes to have been cast for Weaver and Field. Mr. Bonfield brought with him the six ballots cast by members of the college. They are made of solid silver and are deeply engraved on the face: 'Electoral ballot of the State of Nevada.' On the reverse of three of them is a vote for James B. Weaver of Iowa, for President and on the other three a similar announcement in favor of James G. Field of Virginia, for Vice President."

Obituary.

Mrs. Ruann Van Duzer, a native of Ohio, was born on November 18, 1840, and died January 31, 1899.

When but ten years of age she, with her parents, came to this coast. Since then she has resided in Oregon, California and Nevada.

In the year 1863 she was united in marriage to Mr. E. C. Van Duzer. The fruit of this union was two children, Clarence, the elder, now State Land Agent at Washington, and Arda, the younger, who is at present teaching in our public schools. To the bereaved family she has left that which is more precious than silver or gold, the legacy of a pure, consistent and joyful Christian life.

Early in her married life she became a Christian. For ten years the family resided in Elko county, where they were almost entirely deprived of church privileges, but never did she waver in her religious faith, though surrounded by those who had little or no interest in such things. From this state the family moved to Heidelberg, California; thence they moved to Berkeley, where she and others of the family became church members of that which has since grown into a strong church. From Berkeley they went to Oregon, where she was very active in Sunday School work, and finally they returned to Nevada, and in Reno and vicinity they have resided till the present time.

Since she came to Reno she has been a very active and useful member of the Methodist Church, having been a class teacher, Sunday School teacher and also a member of the official board.

Now, that she has gone to her eternal home, how distinctly is remembered her earnest prayers, her ringing testimonies to the power of the gospel to save. (Her pastor found in her a faithful friend and co-worker. She was no faint-hearted, never ordinating, but feeling that her minister had a divine message to deliver, she did all she could by precept and example to encourage and assist him in his work.) It may well be said of her, "She hath done what she could." She was what may be called a joyful Christian.

Bereft of God, we'll do! The glorious warfare past; The battle fought, the race is won, and thus she passed at last.

Senate bill No. 15, introduced by Mr. Gignoux to prevent trespass on real estate by live stock and fixing damages therefor, and to repeal the Trespass Act of March 15, 1889, reads as follows:

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to herd or graze any live stock upon the lands of another without first having obtained the consent of the owner or owners of the land so to do; provided, that the person claiming to be the owner of said lands has the legal title thereto, or an application to purchase the same, with first payment made thereon.

Sec. 2. The live stock which is herded or grazed upon the lands of another, contrary to the provisions of the first section of this Act, shall be liable for all damages done by said live stock while being unlawfully herded or grazed on the lands of another, as aforesaid, together with costs of suit and reasonable counsel fees, to be fixed by the court trying an action therefor, and said live stock may be seized and held by writ of attachment issued in the same manner provided by the general laws of the State of Nevada, as security for the payment of any judgment which may be recovered by the owner or owners of said lands for damages incurred by reason of a violation of any of the provisions of this Act, and the claim and lien of a judgment or attachment in such an action shall be superior to any claim or demand which arose subsequent to the commencement of said action.

Sec. 3. This Act shall not apply to any live stock running at large on the ranges or commons.

A Run Saw Accident.

While Frank Porter was engaged in sawing wood with his steam saw yesterday, a number of young boys amused themselves in playing about the machine. Mr. Porter warned them several times to keep away, but his warnings were not heeded. Phil Reese, one of the lads, while endeavoring to knock a chip off the sliding table got his hand against the rapidly revolving saw and the result was that he nearly lost a finger. How he escaped without the loss of an entire hand is one of those unexplained mysteries. However, one of his fingers was considerably lacerated, but the physician who dressed the injured member believes that no serious results will follow.
